

This diagram shows how a house is set up with water and recycled water pipes. The water pipes in most modern homes are made of either copper or plastic (Polyethelene, PVC or Poly Butylene). The pipe running from the first pipes is drinking water colour all the pipes inside the house in blue, the pipe running from the second pipe straight to the garden is a recycled water supply pipe, colour this pipe in purple.